HIPAA Privacy Statement

When you go to the doctor or pharmacy you will be asked to sign a privacy statement. It may also say HIPAA (Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act) on it.

What are you signing?

- You understand that your doctor, nurse, or pharmacist cannot share your information or records with anyone without your permission.
- Your doctor has to share your medical records with you if you ask.
- You have the right to have copies of your medical records (there may be a fee).
